

VIII POLISH POLE & AERIAL CHAMPIONSHIPS 2025

RULES

1. Organizer

The organizer of the VIII Polish Pole & Aerial Championships, hereinafter referred to as the "Competition", is the Association of the Polish Pole Sport Community, registered on 12.04.2016, KRS number 0000611147, with its registered office in Katowice, hereinafter referred to as the "Organizer".

2. Date and place

The competition will take place on:

April 3 -6, 2025 for the following disciplines: pole sport, artistic pole, ultra pole, para pole, artistic aerial hoop;

June 12 – 15, 2025 for disciplines: aerial hoop sport, aerial pole sport, artistic aerial pole;

The organizer reserves the right to postpone a given discipline between the dates, if the situation after the end of the applications, related to the number of registered competitors, requires it. The announcement of the postponement of a given discipline will be made immediately after the completion of applications on the Organizer's social media profiles and on the website. When applying, the athlete is obliged to take this fact into account and be ready to start during other date. The exact schedule and starting numbers of the competitors for the given dates will be announced two weeks before each of them.

The competition will take place in the 'Spodek' gymnasium, Aleja W. Korfantego 35, 40-005 Katowice

3. Championship Form

The Polish Championships will be held in the form of stationary competition. Due to unforeseen random events on a national scale or possible restrictions, the Organizer reserves the right to cancel the Polish Championships only when it is the utmost necessity. It may also mean limiting the number of seats in the audience or excluding spectators from attending the event. In the event of cancellation of the Championships due to the fault of the Organizer, the entry fees will be refunded to the competitors within a maximum of one month from the date of the competition that was canceled.

4. Regulations

The VIII Polish Pole & Aerial Championship is approved by the International Pole and Aerial Sports Federation and is played as a qualification for the IPSF World Championship, which is equivalent to using the rules and regulations of the IPSAF as the rules for the competition.

The Athlete is obliged to read these Regulations, the relevant IPSAF Points Codes for 2025, the Code of Ethics and the IPSAF Rules and Regulations and apply for the Competition on their basis. All documents are available on the <http://www.pspolesport.pl/dokumenty,i17.html> website. The Athlete is obliged to check the validity of the documents on the PPS and IPSAF websites and to prepare according to their latest updates. The Organizer will inform the group of competitors about the update of the documents. The Competitor is obliged to remember that the English version of the Codes is the final version.

5. Athletes

A competitor taking part in the Open categories can be a person who is a citizen of a country where competitions approved by the International Pole and Aerial Sports Federation are not held. A citizen of a country where IPSAF-approved competitions do not take place but has a document confirming a temporary residence permit in

Polski Komitet
Sportów Nieolimpijskich

Poland, employment, school/university attendance or similar, may represent Poland if the previous year he/she did not take part in IPSAF-approved competitions as a representative of another country. In such a case, the application must be completed for national categories (not Open).

6. Association of Schools/Studios/Clubs

Open competitors are not obliged to join or represent a Polish club/studio.

7. Participation

In order to ensure maximum safety for everyone, each participant (including accompanying persons) is obliged to appear at the competition site only in the absence of any symptoms of illness or health complications. In the event of resignation from the competition after the final date of resignation, the competitor is obliged to provide medical documents confirming the inability to participate in the competition, in accordance with the provisions of the No Show Policy (in the Points Codes). Cancellation of the competition at any time and for any reason will result in no refund of fees.

8. Categories & Sections

A detailed description of the categories and sections can be found in the International Pole and Aerial Sports Federation's Rules and Regulations, contained in the respective Points Codes of the discipline in question. In the application, the competitor chooses the section and category appropriate to his experience and age category. The consequence of entering the wrong section/category is disqualification (see HJ Penalties in the Codes of Points). In the case of applying for different disciplines, the athlete chooses a section according to experience for each of them. The section of a competitor in different categories in the same discipline must be the same. For Open competitors only the highest sections are accessible.
